Approved For Release 2007/06/14 : CIA-RDP99-00498R000100090002-3

ARTICLE APPEARED ON PAGE B-2

WASHINGTON STAR (GREEN LINE)
28 APRIL 1977

STAT

Ymelda Dixon

EXCERPT:

Guests at the dinner for King Hussein of Jordan at Anderson House Tuesday, many of whom had attended the liquorless dinner for Egypt's Anwar Sadat at the same place earlier this month, heaved a sigh of relief upon first spotting the bars and later sighting three wine glasses at each place.

At Table 8, conversation never lagged, which was not strange. The occupants there included CIA Director Stansfield Turner; Iranian Ambassador Ardeshir Zahedi; Rep. Helen Meyner; Charles Schultze, the President's very agreeable chief economic adviser; Mrs. Walter Washington; Mrs. Clifford Alexander and Percy.

At the same party, Sen. Richard Stone corralled Bob Bergland, of whom he observed, "Bergland is the best secretary of Agriculture we ever had, and I don't need to say so if I didn't believe it."

* * * *

Approved For Release 2007/06/14 : CIA-RDP99-00498R000100090002-3